

- Changes in grades of participating youth
- Changes in number of adult/police volunteers
- Changes in number of families served
- Changes in number of police cadets
- Changes in number of youth referred to services (e.g. substance abuse treatment)
- Changes in number of parents involved in program
- Changes in number of service hours completed
- Changes in number of truancies/attendance records
- Changes in number of youth that complete the program (if applicable, e.g. graduation)
- Changes in number of youth involved in program

Note: Some outcomes could be assessed over the short term and the long-term, i.e., you could assess certain outcomes upon program completion, and then follow up on the same outcomes over time.

