

LEADERSHIP in POLICE ORGANIZATIONSSM

Leadership in Police OrganizationsSM (LPO) is IACP's three-week in-person (one week a month over the course of three consecutive months) or twelve-week virtual leadership development training program for experienced leaders through command. LPO is modeled after the training concept of dispersed leadership ("every officer a leader") and delivers modern behavioral science concepts and theories uniquely tailored to the law enforcement environment. Participants learn evidence-informed leadership theories, decision-making processes, and effective communication strategies that will help them inspire followers, lead groups, and achieve organizational goals.

Curriculum includes topics such as:

Leading Change

Individual Differences

Effective Followership

Group Socialization

Intergroup Conflict Management

Communication and Counseling Skills

Culture and Ethical Organizations

Understanding Human Motivation

Emotional Intelligence
